To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for your letter requesting access to police reports for case # 19-44844-a-ar

Pursuant to the Access to Public Records Act, the records you have requested (or a portion of the records you have requested) do not constitute public records. Specifically, some parts of the report are exempt from public disclosure pursuant to the following section of R.I. Gen. Laws § 38-2-2(4) (D) and have been redacted accordingly. See Below:

- ☐ - a – could reasonably be expected to interfere with investigations of criminal activity or with enforcement proceedings.
- ☐ - b – would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication.
- ☒ - c – could reasonable be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- ☐ - d – could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a state, local, or foreign agency or authority, or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, or the information furnished by a confidential source.
- ☐ - e – would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions.
- ☐ - f – could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
- ☒ - g – juvenile information
- ☐ - h – medical information
- ☐ - i – other _____

In accordance with R.I. Gen. Laws § 38-2-8, you may wish to appeal this decision to Col. Michael J. Winquist, the Chief of the Cranston Police Department. You may also wish to file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, Rhode Island, 02903, or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the record(s) are maintained. It is also my understanding that additional information concerning the Access to Public Records Act may be available through the Attorney General's website at www.riag.org.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Dunton
Chief Record Clerk

OFFICER'S FIRST REPORT

19-44844-AR

Officer Alex Travers #492

Date/Time Report: 06/28/2019 1739 hours

On Friday, June 28th, 2019 at approximately 1617 hours officers were dispatched to Budlong Pool, 198 Aqueduct Road, to disperse a large group of juveniles. Upon arrival, officers spoke to Cranston Parks and Recreation Director Anthony Liberatore. He directed officers' attention to the southeast end of the pool and stated that the large group of juveniles had been acting unruly despite several repeated warnings to calm down.

Officer Lavey and I then began dispersing the crowd. Officer Lavey and I then observed two (2) males actively engaged in a fist fight outside of the pool along the southwestern portion. Officer Lavey and I separated the two (2) males, who were later identified as fifteen (15) year old [REDACTED] and eighteen (18) year old Ian Fana, and placed them into custody. [REDACTED] and Ian both declined medical attention. Ian suffered a minor laceration to his nose.

Officer Lavey and I radioed for additional officers to respond to assist with crowd control. Several additional officers responded to the scene and multiple other subjects were placed into custody. Please refer to their reports for additional information.

[REDACTED] and Ian were both advised that they were trespassed from Budlong Pool and would be subject to arrest if they returned. They stated that they understood.

I contacted [REDACTED] mother, [REDACTED] and advised her of his arrest.

Officers transported [REDACTED] and Ian to headquarters. [REDACTED] was kept separated sight and sound from adults. Ian was booked and held pending arraignment.

[REDACTED] responded to headquarters at 1750 hours and [REDACTED] was turned over to her custody. She was advised that she would receive correspondence from the Special Victims' Unit regarding upcoming court proceedings.

[REDACTED] and Ian Fana are each charged with:

- RIGL 11-45-1: Disorderly Conduct
